I tried to submit comments on line and am not sure they made it. I was not able to save a copy of them if they did make it. Could you check and let me know. Hi, My name is Chet, I have recently been looking to buy a home specifically along the Gold Line route in Arvada, I have read some bad press recently regarding RTD, specifically the Fastrack project. My question is, what are the chances of this specific project being scraped? I really hope not. Thanks for you time            Chet	email	October 19, 2009
