

Auraria West Station

STATION DESCRIPTION

- The Auraria West Station has been relocated 300 feet northwest from its original position. Currently the station operates as part of RTD’s C-line; but the move will allow the West Rail Line tracks to continue out of the station under the Colfax viaduct. The existing tracks will continue to the southeast to the 10th and Osage Station.
- The Auraria West Station is now located west of 5th Street, south of Walnut and north of Colfax.

STATION ACTIVITY

Riders

It is estimated that 5,629 individuals will either board or exit the light rail at this station going to or from the West Rail Line on an average weekday in 2030. Additional light rail riders will utilize this station from the existing Southeast and Southwest Corridors.
